Walhill Farm has become one of the tri-state's premier romance destinations with its expertly crafted artisanal dining options and fine wine, cocktail, and craft beer offerings. According to owner Peter Hillenbrand, Walhill "knows passion. We're passionate about our food, about our farm, and about our customer's dining experience. Fortunately, this kind of passion translates perfectly when it comes to providing the best Valentine's Day experience in town. We work hard to make sure that every couple that comes in our door leaves looking forward to a second date with Walhill." Walhill Farm is currently taking reservations for Friday, February 14, Saturday, February 15, and Sunday, February 16, but spots are filling quickly. Walhill Farm is also gaining notoriety for its outstanding Sunday brunch offerings. Every Sunday from 10AM -2PM, Walhill Farm offers unique menu selections that are perfectly paired with one of the homemade Bloody Marys from Walhill's bottomless Bloody Mary bar. In recent weeks, menu offerings have included espresso crepes (delicate crepes filled with espresso buttercream and topped with whipped cream and decadent chocolate sauce), salmon cakes, herbed hollandaise cheese grits, pimento chicken sandwiches, and a weekly waffle special. Says Chef du Cuisine Nick Gladding, "I really look forward to debuting a new waffle special every week. It's exciting to see customers fall in love with one of my creations. Some customers return week after week to try out my newest waffle. It's really one of the things that makes brunch at Walhill Farm such a fun experience."
